

EXPLORE OUR VIDEO COURSES

Make learning the fundamentals of MLA style easy with our instructional video courses. Courses are offered in mini-lessons to guide students step-by-step through core concepts. Students are prompted to answer questions and take quizzes along the way to reinforce what they have learned.

Current courses include:

- MLA Style 101. Explore the MLA template of core elements with this introductory course. Each of the nine videos highlights one of the elements—like Author, Version, or Publisher—and provides guidance on how to find publication information in various types of sources.
- Using the Practice Template. Learn how to use our practice template of core elements to assemble works-cited-list entries.
- Quoting and Paraphrasing in MLA Format. Discover how to paraphrase and quote from sources—and avoid plagiarism—in this ten-part, detailed walk-through of the various ways to integrate quotations into prose.
- In-Text Citations in MLA Format. Become an expert in how to create basic and complex in-text citations, how to manage multiple sources in one sentence, and common misconceptions about in-text citations.

These courses are the perfect companion tools for anyone teaching or studying the MLA Handbook.

Learn more at mlahandbookplus.org/courses.

